

Funding Your Congregation's Vision

From the Lewis Center for Church Leadership of Wesley Theological Seminary

Bring the Lewis Center's Popular Stewardship Conference to Your Region

Developing secure and reliable funding to support ministry is a concern of virtually every church leader today. To respond to this need, the Lewis Center for Church Leadership has created tools and resources to aid leaders and congregations in developing sound approaches to stewardship and finances.

To educate large groups on the subject, we offer Funding Your Congregation's Vision events. Wherever you are across the country, Lovett H. Weems, Jr., Director of the Lewis Center, will engage your group with presentations and workshops to help congregations enhance resources for ministry. Programs are appropriate for both clergy and lay leaders.
