

Protect, Sustain, Grow: Best Practices for Handling Your Church's Money Conference & Livestream

Saturday, March 10, 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Eastern Time

Attendees may participate in person at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC, or via livestream from their own computer or mobile device across the globe.

This event provides practical advice, best practices, and resources for pastors, finance committee members, church treasurers, financial secretaries, and bookkeepers — all those charged with the sacred trust of protecting, sustaining, and growing the resources God has entrusted to your church.

Sessions:

- The Ministry of Financial Management
- Protecting Your Church's Money through Oversight and Integrity
- Sustaining Your Church's Ministry through Paying Attention
- Growing Your Church's Money through New Sources and Means of Giving

Presented by Dr. Lovett H. Weems, Jr.,
Dr. Ann A. Michel, and Dr. Daryl L. Williams

Early-bird registration discounts through February 12

Invite others from your church to join you!

- In-person conference registration: ~~$50~~ $40 per person
- Live stream registration for 1 person: ~~$50~~ $40
- Live stream registration for groups (2+): ~~$75~~ $60

Protect, Sustain, Grow: Best Practices for Handling Your Church's Money is ecumenical and designed for both laity and clergy.

Learn more and register today at churchleadership.com/register

Lewis Center
for Church Leadership