One-Minute Stewardship

Creative Ways to Talk about Money in Church
Charles Cloughen Jr.

An invaluable resource for planning your annual stewardship campaign this fall.

“If you are searching for creative ideas or just the right words, One-Minute Stewardship by Charles Cloughen, Jr. is for you. The book provides practical perspectives on congregational giving and scores of brief meditations that can be used or adapted by church leaders to integrate stewardship themes into preaching, teaching, special gatherings, and the everyday life of a church. “

—Dr. Ann A. Michel,
Lewis Center for Church Leadership of Wesley Theological Seminary

"One-Minute Stewardship is a must-read for clergy, seminarians, and persons responsible for encouraging others to enjoy giving as an act of worship, building discipleship, and developing a culture of generosity in the local church.”

—Rev. Melvin Amerson, Texas Methodist Foundation

One-Minute Stewardship is a collection of short reflections—indexed by scripture, theme, event, and lectionary—designed to promote the development of a meaningful theology of giving and the message of good stewardship every Sunday of the year.

Charles Cloughen Jr. has been an Episcopal priest for more than 50 years, serving in parishes in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Texas, and Maryland. He serves as Planned Giving Officer for the Cathedral of the Incarnation in Baltimore.

As churches emerge from the Covid-19 pandemic, we encourage ministers and pastors to buy copies for their stewardship committee as your congregation regathers and faces the financial challenges of the post-pandemic church. It will aid in teaching the Good News of year-round stewardship.
