

How and Why Ministry Can Flourish in the Age of AI

Artificial Intelligence is transforming every aspect of human life—and pastors and seminaries have a vital role to play in shaping what comes next.

Wednesday, May 13, 2026 | 4:00-6:30 p.m. | Chapel at Wesley Theological Seminary

Secure your spot today

The Hub
for (Re)imagining Ministry

WESLEY
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Join David McAllister-Wilson in conversation with Allison Pugh and James Cartwright

as they explore that vital role and what skills and frameworks Christian leaders need to reimagine ministry, deepen community, and bring the wisdom of faith to the most pressing questions of our time.

- Allison Pugh, Professor of Sociology at Johns Hopkins University, author of The Last Human Job: The Work of Connecting in a Disconnected World (Princeton 2024). Pugh's research and teaching focus on how people forge connections and find meaning and dignity at home and at work.
- Gen. (ret.) James Cartwright, former Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Wesley Governor, and a leading strategist and architect of global security and technology.
- Moderated by David McAllister-Wilson, President, Wesley Theological Seminary

Wednesday, May 13, 2026 | 4:00-6:30 p.m.

Chapel at Wesley Theological Seminary
4500 Massachusetts Ave NW
Washington, DC

Free parking on-site. Hors d'oeuvres will be served and opportunities for further conversation will follow the panel discussion.

Wesley Theological Seminary
Office of Development
4500 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20016

Secure your spot by emailing events@wesleyseminary.edu
or RSVPing at
<https://tinyurl.com/May13Panel>

